Our Own Rosetta Stone for '64

SEPTEMBER

- 4 The forty-ninth school year was launched with new ideas and new opportunities.
- 28 FHA members arose early this morning to attend the Eureka Regional Meeting.

OCTOBER

- 8 Girl hockey enthusiasts attended exhibition game at Washington U. Argentine women edged the Swedish women, one to nothing.
- 15 Vendors sold 311 copies of the first issue of the Growl.
- 16 At 7:30 a.m., sleepy-eyed seniors converged on the cafeteria to take the Ohio Psychological Exam.

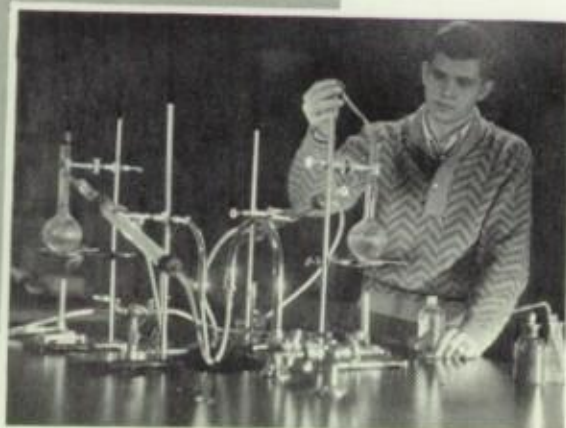

NOVEMBER

- 13 New honor roll system went into effect as first quarter report cards were issued.
- 14 College night participants from Fairview, Hazelwood, Riverview, and Jennings, got a glimpse of campus life from the representatives of colleges and universities all over the country.
- 21 Students donned their Sunday best for the Student Council-sponsored dress-up day.
- 28 Thanksgiving Day—the day to be thankful for the blessings that are ours to claim and keep.

DECEMBER

- 5 With hopes of getting their rings earlier than previous classes, juniors ordered and made the first payment.
- 12 Combined efforts of the band and chorus in the annual Christmas concert filled the auditorium with joys of the season.
- 20 Maids and escorts for the Basket Ball were announced at an assembly marking beginning of the holidays.

JANUARY

- 8 Members of the newly formed Art Club and other interested students toured the Art Museum.
- 13 The snows came—no school!
- 15-17 Long hours spent studying, lunch at McDonalds', minds going blank, moments of tension, and sighs of relief were all part of exam days.

FEBRUARY

- 10 Doug Maxwell was mayor of St. Louis for a day as the Explorers took over the city government.
- 20 Third period band concert; Brentwood completed the exchange.
- 26 FTA attended a program to observe teaching techniques at the Central Institute for the Deaf.

MARCH

- 10 Juniors spent all morning in the cafeteria taking the National Merit Scholarship Test.
- 13 The class of '65 dressed up to receive their rings.
- 19-20 Little Mary Sunshine, presented by a double cast, was a humorous satire on well-known composers.

APRIL

- 16-24 Intensive research and hard work were evident at the St. Louis Science Fair.
- 29 Before the old year was finished, sophomores and juniors looked toward the coming year by electing cheerleaders.

MAY

- 22 The carnival provided an interlude from routine weekends.
- 29 On annual picnic, seniors celebrated completion of four years of hard work.

JUNE

- 5 THE END!

"... led the big parade ...!"

Innovations in the Portable Playhouse this year included scenery shuffling, costume changing all done on stage in sight of the audience.

Broadway lights . . . the hit shows and the hit songs . . . all brought to life by our Mixed Chorus in five spirited performances. Under the direction of John E. Maier, the cast did an outstanding job in

The cast makes its final appearance at curtain call.

The Senior Play, a hilarious, two hour comedy, was thoroughly enjoyed by an audience of almost 250.

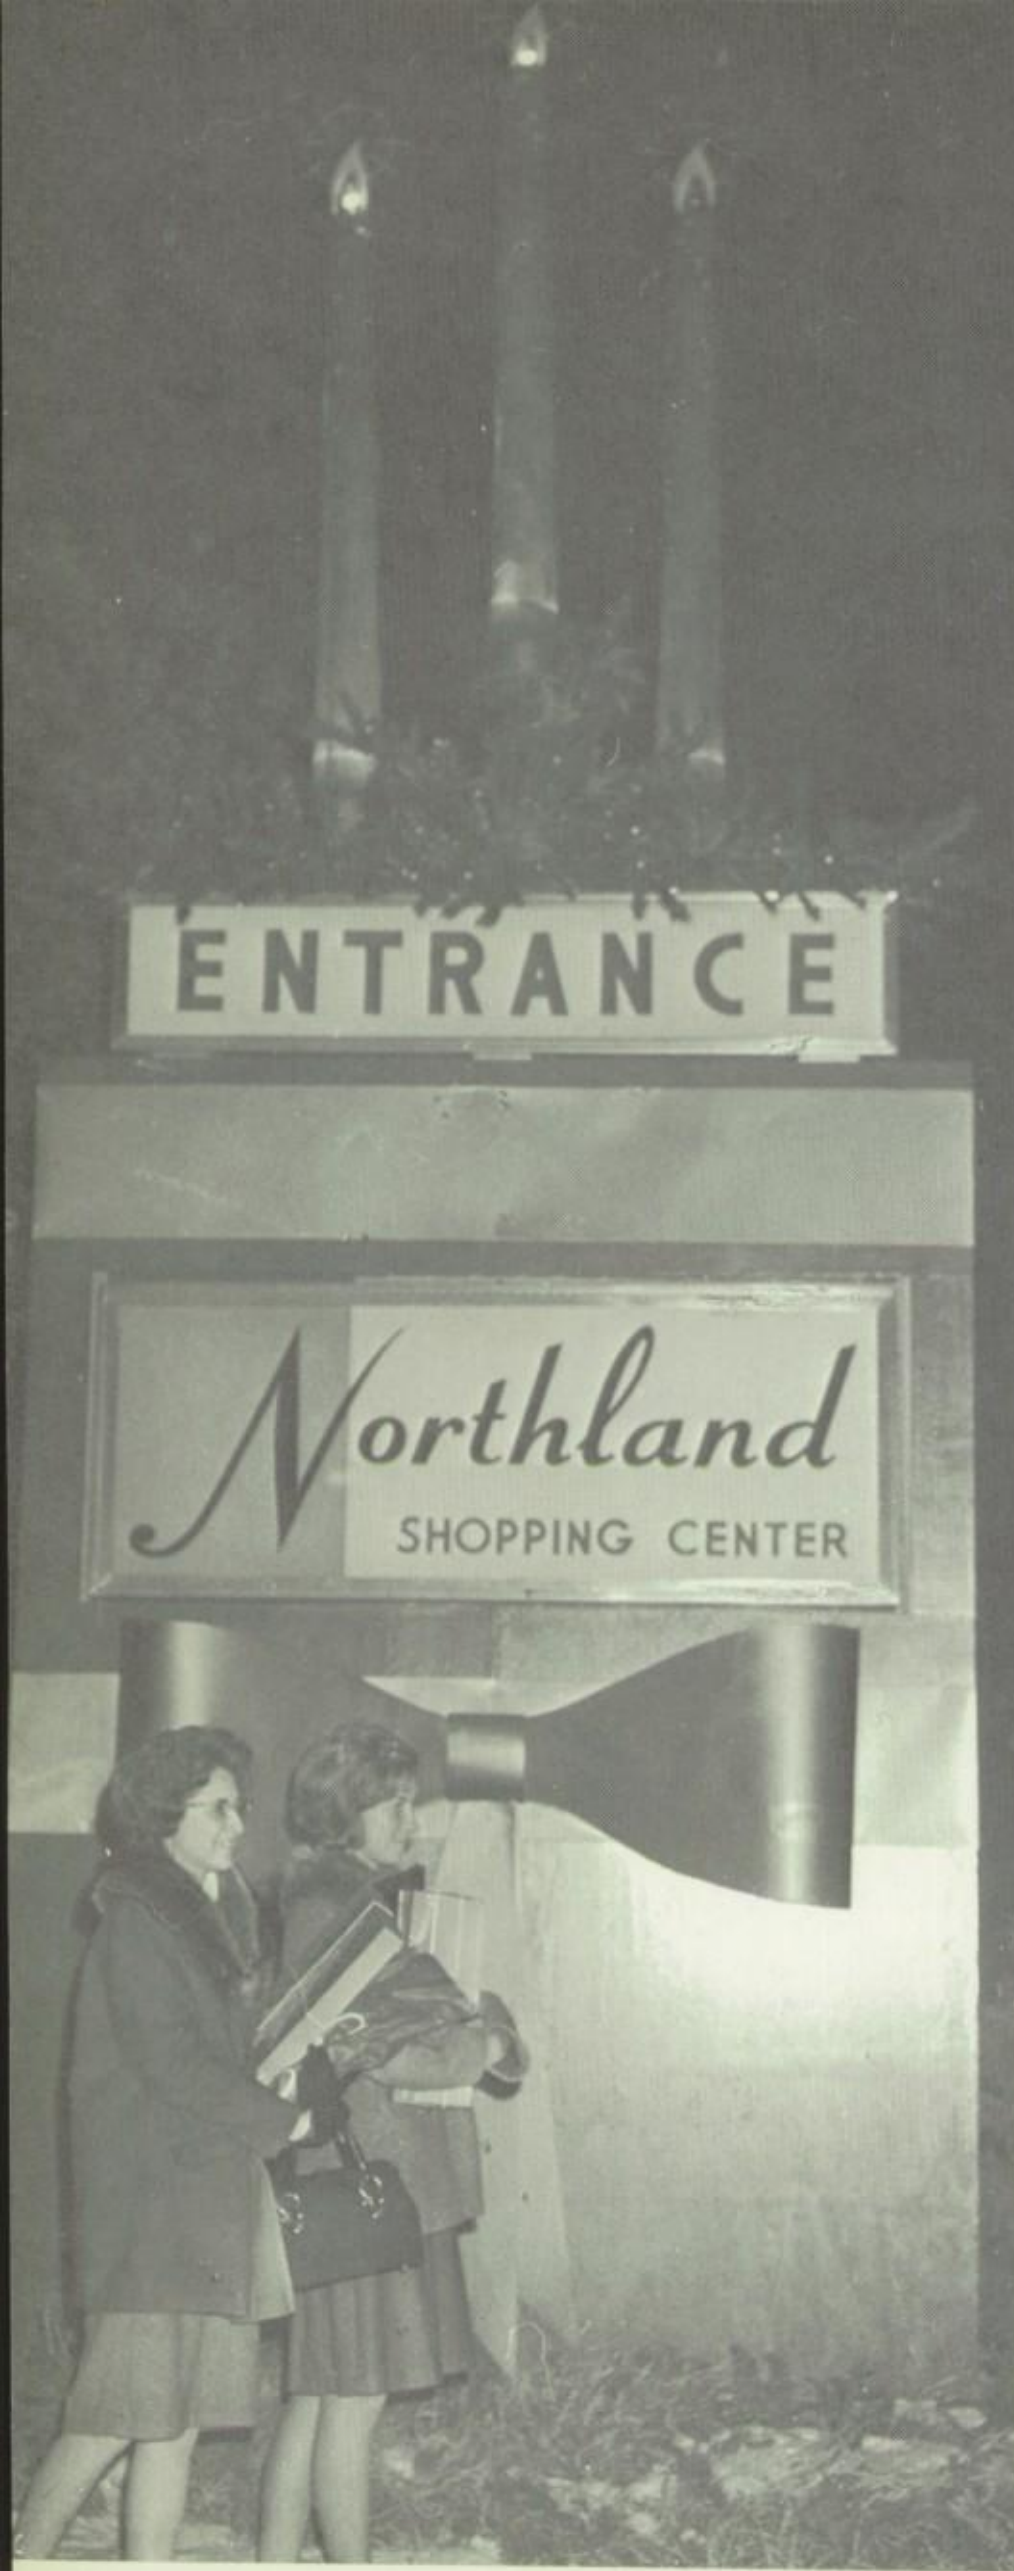

Ed Mangner, who donned beard and gray hair, gave a smooth, convincing performance throughout. Kathy Reeves and Warren Hartman added humor to the action as a refreshing married couple. Kathy's winning personality made her a natural for her role. Warren's many antics, making fireworks, sprawling on the floor to play with an erector set, helped keep the mood happy and carefree. Pat Ryan and Bob Phillips made a wholesome couple with a youthful outlook on life. Marty Virga's dancing ability and grace showed her a good advantage as a potential ballerina. A Russian accent, ballet steps, and wrestling holds were mastered by Carl Niehaus for his role. Glenn DeWees and Sharon Graves, both comical in appearance, proved to be capable scene stealers.

These actors, along with seven others in the cast, and all the back-stage crews worked diligently to make the production an artistic and financial success.

Glenn DeWees

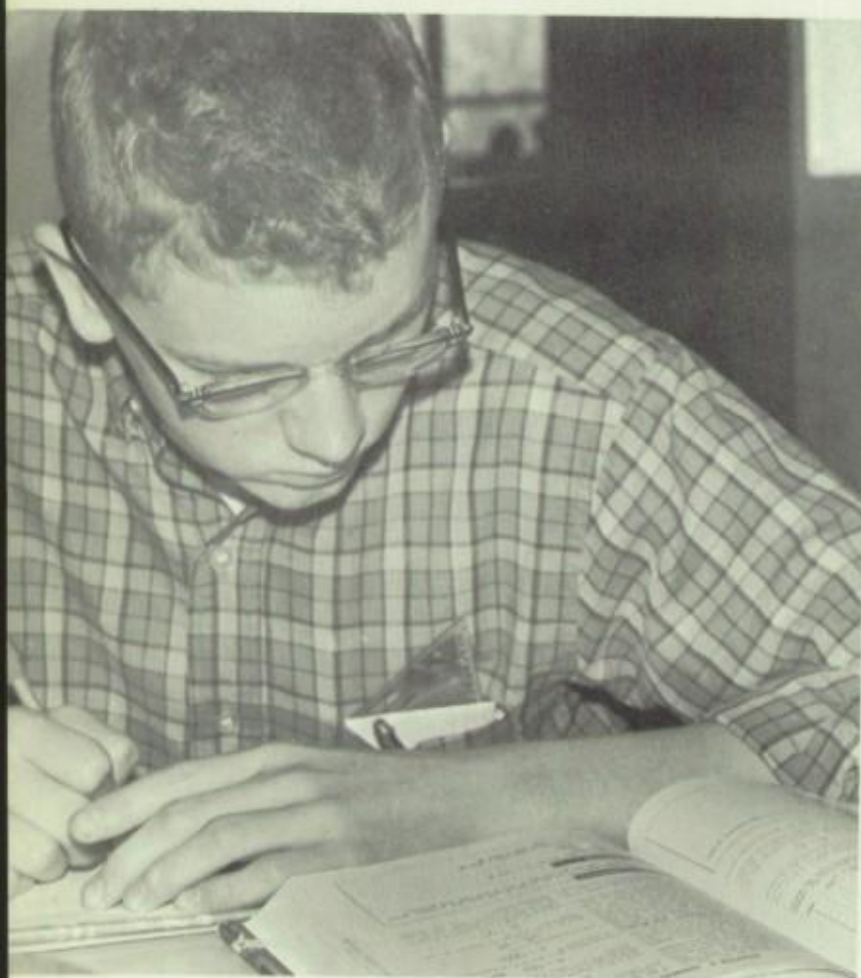

“ 'Tis the Season . . . ”

December 20, 1963. Jennings students experienced their first white Christmas in years, and amidst the bustle of last-minute shopping, airport caroling, and trimming of the tree, perhaps found time to reflect on the unspoiled beauty of the season.

Bargain Day

Never Before Did So Many Get So Much for So Little

Mrs. Vera Gruner, Cafeteria manager, plans the BIG DAY

Oven roasted turkey and dressing
Mashed potatoes with giblet gravy
Cranberry sauce
Green beans
Bread and butter
Pumpkin or apple pie
Milk

Price, including service 35¢

Mrs. Anne Wilson and Mrs. Violet Pluemer take two of the six 20 pound birds from the oven.

Apple pie appears often, but for the BIG DAY Mrs. Helen Phillips and Mrs. Vita Lena sliced up an additional 50 pumpkin pies.

It's safe to say no student went through the line twice on the BIG DAY—and were Mrs. Lindhorst and Mrs. Kendrick glad!

GROWL Probed for Grass Roots Opinion, Turned Crusader in Circulation Campaign

Trio of feature writers, Ginny Jones, Glenn Taylor and Marie Landgraf often livened up school year with off-beat approach and got encouragement or critical help from Mr. Maier before, during or after copy was turned in.

Donna Arning, Judy Minnis and Sue Dandridge of the editorial staff kept digging in spite of discouraging developments as some projects fizzled, sputtered or just exploded.

Jen-Echo

Layouts, both preliminary and final, required close cooperation between (l. to r.): Rick Weber, Crista Gould, Karen Kemp and George Bagot.

Jerry Gebauer and Glenn DeWees put the finishing touches on the sales campaign while Daisy Landholt, Kathy Reeves, Betty Henson and Judy Hart tally cash received from sale of more than 500 books.

Secretarial skills were put into practice as members of Miss Mary Shultz's class prepared invitations for the Valentine Tea.

Bulletin board display served as backdrop for tea service as one of the features of the annual event.

Lots of Salesmen +

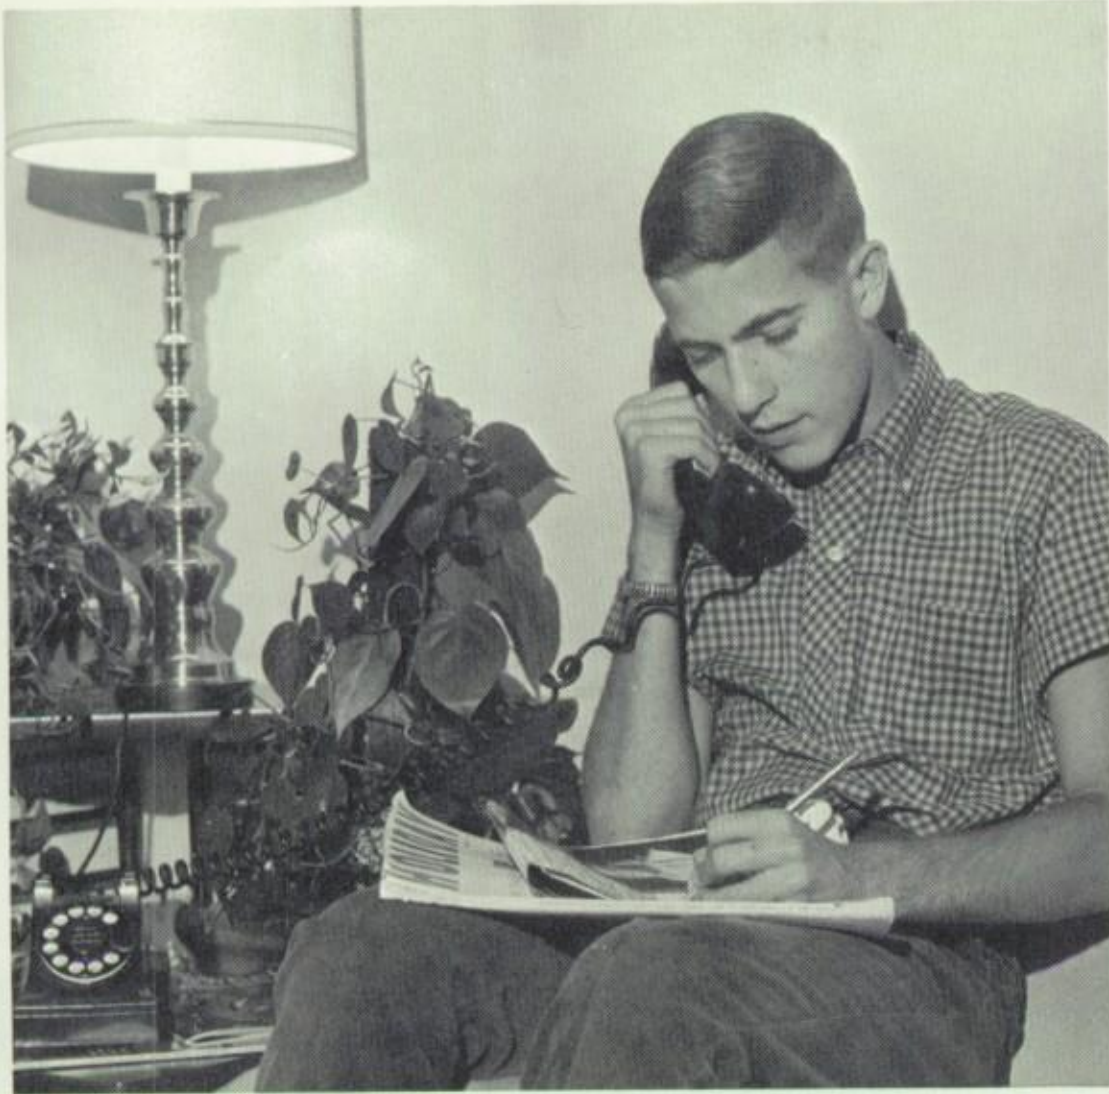

Mr. Stolhman, alias Ben Curtis Franklin, gets the sales snowball rolling at first Junior class meeting.

Radios, records, wrist timers and relaxed Rovers give magazine pushers that extra incentive to sell, sell, sell.

Lots of Hard Work = Big, Big Prom

"Let's see now. That's a Post, a Life, a Holiday . . . and ten dollars closer to two hundred . . ."

Like to order one, two, three . . . maybe four?

Another $7.85
Another grab at a daily prize.

Pep Weekend began when Coach Carol Komadina's fangless Bulldogs tiptoed past Danny Landholt's punchless Cuckoos and a mum-wearing crowd tried hard to master "We got the whole . . ."

Mums, Cuckoos, New Cheers . . .

Shaky, last-minute practice by Freshman Maids Barbara Topel and Merry Ellersieck with the assistance of Escorts Marlin Meyer and Richard Thomas.

Devil's Toll Gate Climaxes Pep Weekend

Terry Forrest and Ed Parham wonder if those boutonnieres really add self-confidence as they are pinned on by Junior Maids Cheryl Morrison and Linda Schiller.

Mirror, Mirror on the door. It'll all be over in a few minutes more? Sophomore Maids Gayle Rupprecht and Carol Erting, with Escorts Dave Koetterheinrich and Dan Colpi make final adjustments.

The crown fits: wear it. Coach Bob Grace proves this for King Rick Weber as Senior Escorts Larry Smith and Larry Kruse look more amused than disappointed.

The tension packed moment passes as Mrs. Janice Polk hands Queen Karen Pluemer her bouquet and Senior Maids Pat Ryan and Kathy Reeves add their congratulations.

Student Council

Mirrors knew no sex, did rush business all day long when Council sponsored Dress Up Day.

Council members served as guides as Jennings played host to students from five area high schools at annual College Night.

And in conclusion . . .

Bulldogs in Action

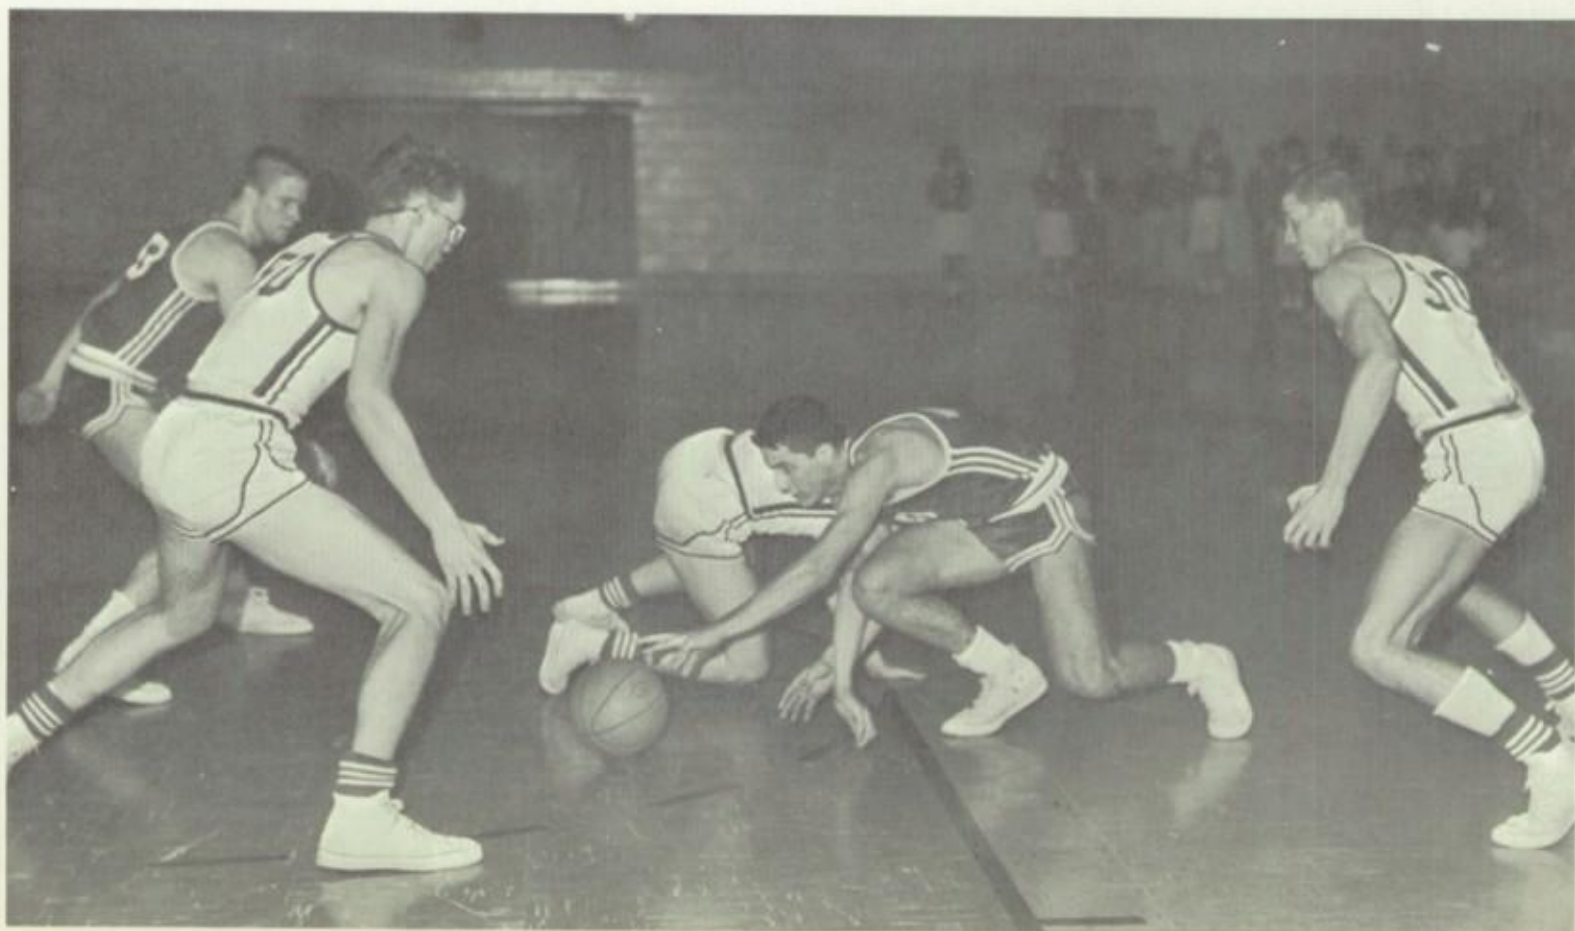

Larry Kruse, on pay-off end of fast break, scores against Pattonville in North County Tournament game won by the Pirates 70—57.

Go, Fight, Score, Win

Red-shirted Ed Parham (#53), goes high to gather in rebound as Bulldogs proved tough on the boards at home and away.

Seemingly trapped by a pouncing defense, Rick Weber scrambles for loose ball as Jennings tried to find winning combination in rough early season league battles.

Student Leadership Is Talent Well

Marty Virga, third runner-up winner in the Junior Miss Contest, polishes acrobatic routine which helped put two trophies on mantle during month-long competition with other girls throughout Missouri.

The Folklore Four composed of Warren Hartman, Larry Smith, Kathy Reeves and Carl Niehaus offered lots of harmony on little heard melodies.

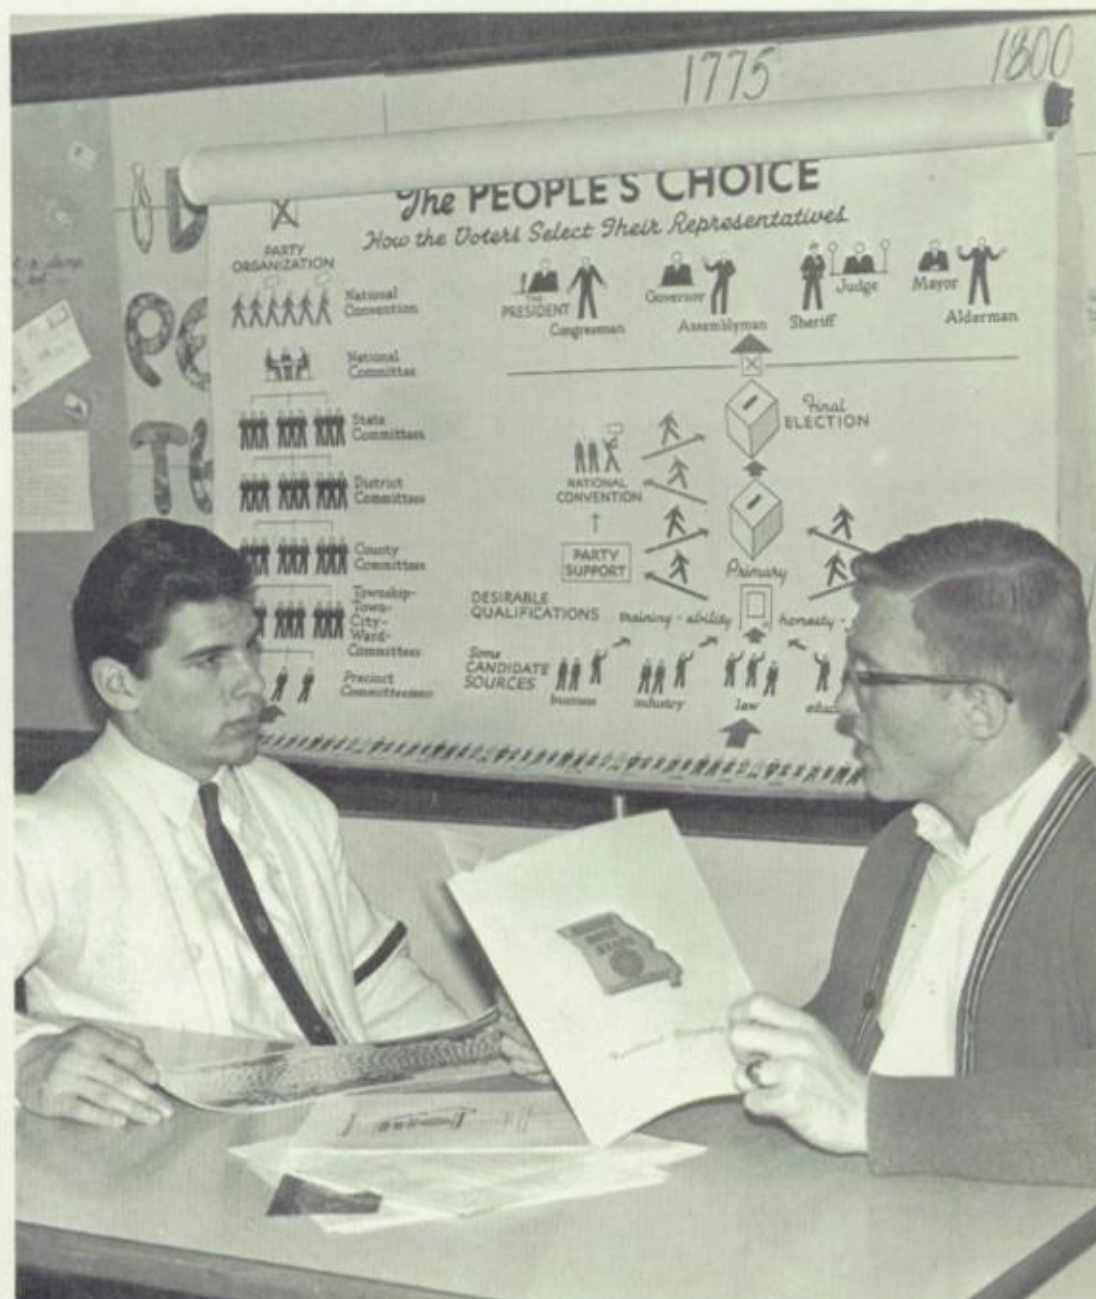

At Its Best Put to Use

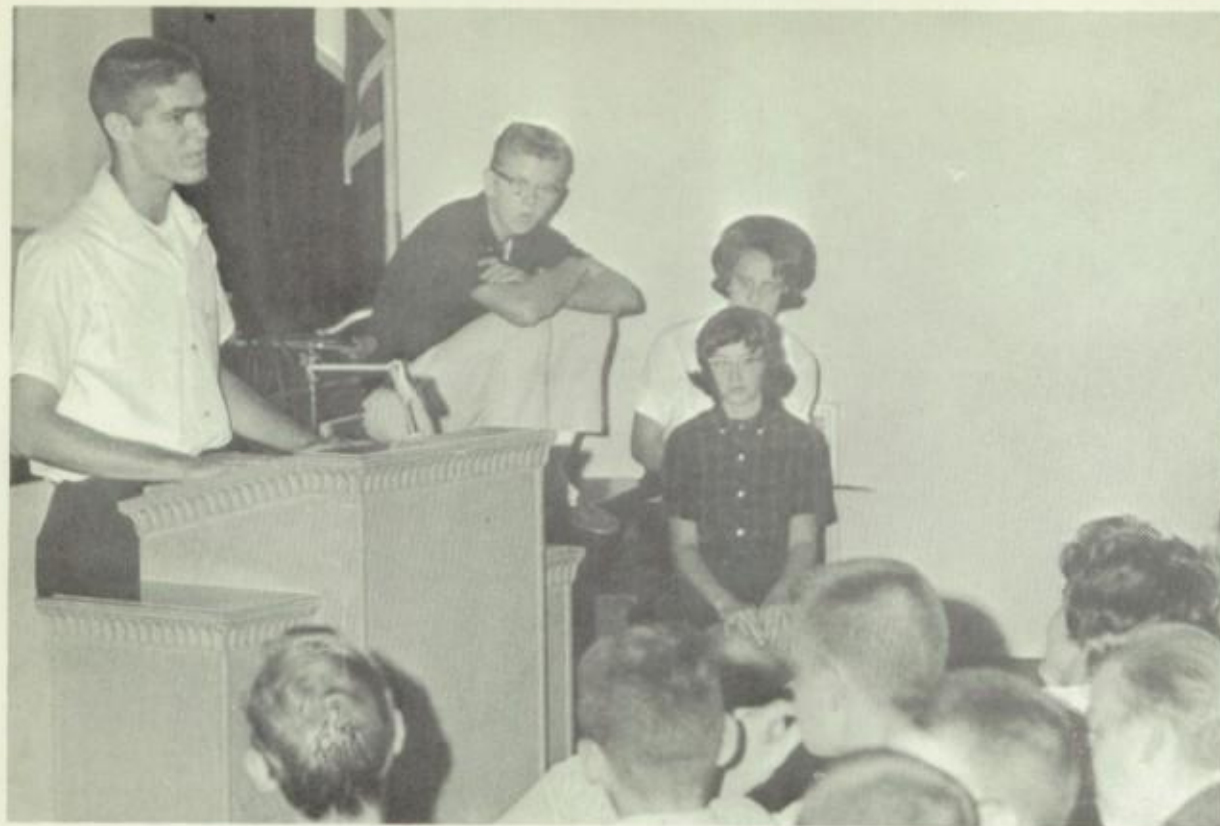

The Blue Knights, Bill Blessing, Nancy Kientzy and Jennings musicians Terry Schieler, Warren Hartman, Glenn DeWees, Mark Magenheimer (and Larry Smith, not pictured) donated services for the Royal Flush, enabled Seniors to add $117.00 to class treasury.

St. Louis Mayor Raymond Tucker and Jennings Junior Doug Maxwell discuss a bill about to be introduced in the Board of Alderman. Doug, chosen as Mayor for a Day by the Explorers B.S.A., then directed his speech (left) to the entire Board gathered in assembly.

Mark Magenheimer (left), elected to represent Jennings at Missouri Boys State this year, gets an advance word from Student Council president Carl Niehaus, 1963 Boys State representative.

Dear Jim,

What can I say to such a great gal who has been such a wonderful friend? I'm writing this while you're at Northland thinking that no one loves you enough to give you enough to give you a party & remember your birthday! Boy, will you be surprised! Jim, everything you've done for me will never be forgotten by me. We will have you through an awful lot together this year, but we'll still come out on top, eh? Remember all the fun we've had together mostly right here in your ol' homestead!

← I hope that all goes well for you in the future & whatever you want you get. Good luck you & keep you. There's no one person that I know of that desires any more than you do. Along with all our fun though we do have some, well, let's say sort of unhappy memories too. You know what I'm talking about so I won't junk up your graduate by putting in their names!

But the fact with that! This summer is going to be great & full of fun. We'll go to the super camp place that's stupid enough to let the two of us complete diets in! Our trip to Oregon is only about year off now, babe! Hope! Well, I can't think of anything else to say, because I think you know what I'm thinking. Anyway, you know how I am, when it's time to say goodbye, I go blank! Good luck always, good health, & happiness always to the greatest gal I know. Remember Jim

Friend Always,
Have ya forever,
Manny E.

Emanuel

Linda,
Well, I don't know what to say but best of luck in your senior year! May you keep your personality always.
Don't forget all of the boredom we have spent together in History classes. And don't forget all of the other fun we have had together. May we always remain as good of friends as we are now.
Like you said I don't know what to say it but thanks for letting me cry on your shoulder
more times than I can count.
If you ever need a shoulder to cry on you know that I got two that are strong. Good luck in the future no matter what you do.
May only the best come your way. Good luck with Bart.
Always remember to keep thy swift personality that ain't so swift.
Best of luck and all that stuff.

Yare Ya,
Mickey (Rongey)

P.S. Don't forget
Robin + William.

to Jim,
I have wonderful year with you, we talked a lot, we shared opinions and ideas. I hope next year will find the same kind of relationship as
this year.
I don't do much outside of school with you, but I don't have much time to. I wonder if anyone could take for summer place, as far as friends, but I stop wondering because you have

Your friend always Brenda (Seithel)

B.D.
Hope you will look forward to seeing me next year. I'll be looking for you.
